

Job Description: Logic & Rhetoric Boys PE Teacher

Regents Academy is seeking a part-time PE teacher to lead physical education classes for junior high and high school boys.

Classes meet on two days per week in the afternoon.

The ideal candidate will demonstrate strong classroom management skills and a clear understanding of the physical and developmental needs of boys in grades 6–12. The teacher should be able to lead structured, engaging activities that promote physical fitness, teamwork, discipline, and Christian character.

Experience working with adolescent boys in a school or coaching context is preferred. A commitment to classical Christian education and the ability to model godly behavior are essential.
